Letter No 98/25-26 of 11/14-12-25 from the Resl Comr, Bangalore city.

Submits for the approval a copy of the resolution of the Resl Council proposing an amendment to clause 6 Section 186 J of the Hyderabad Regns regarding the reemployment of pensioners in the Municipality.

V

In his letter No. 124/23-24 of the 16th June 1924, the Resl Comr, Bangalore city suggested that he may be included among the Officers employed conferred to re-employ pensioners under Article 364 of H. S. R.

2 Government in their order R 5753/R1 22-23-29 of the 2nd May 1924 observed that it was not appropriate to include a Resl Authority in the lists of Heads of Govt Depts given in note under Art 364 of H. S. R. and that if the Municipality wanted to frame a similar rule, it might do so after obtaining the approval of Govt to the set of rules framed by the Resl Council.

W

3 The Resl Comr has accordingly submitted the amendment to Section 186 J (1) of the Resl Regns as amended by Regn IV of 1923 as proposed by the Resl Council.

4 The proposed amendment runs

In G.O. dated 2.8.24 (M.V) Govt suggested to the Municipal Council to frame a set of rules for sanction of Govt so as to empower the Municipal Commissioner to re-employ pensioners.

The Council have now sent up a resolution to amend Section 186 (J) of the Municipal Regulation for this purpose

Govt is inclined to concede the power to the Municipal Commissioner it appears to me that this can be done without amending the proposed amendment.

Under Sec 186 (J) cl (a) the Mun Comr's powers of appointment are subject to the general rules of recruitment that the Govt may make from time to time. These rules are contained in M.S.R and the rule pertaining to the re-employment of pensioners is contained in Art 361.

If a rule is added to this Article empowering the Mun Comr of the City to appoint pensioners without the sanction of Govt, this will serve the purpose.

This procedure has the merit of avoiding the delay which will be caused in amending the Mun Regn as the amending Reference.:--- Re-employment of Pensioners.

As per Rule 364 Mysore Service Regulations, a pensionsioner of any class may with the sanction of Government be employed without loss of pension, provided the employment is bonafide temporary lasting for not more than a year. This power vested in Government has been extended to the Heads of Departments as per note o. the above Article. It is better and convenient that the Municipality should follow a similar Rule and the Municipal Commissioner may be empowered to entertain pensioners in cases of necessity. And for this purpose a reference has been made to Government and a reply has been received from Covernment that the Municipal Council may frame a similar Rule and forward it for approval of Government (Vide letter enclosed.)

It is therefore proposed that the following may be added as - Clause (d) to Article 166 (j) of the Municipal Regulation.

"To appoint pensioners, temporarily in vacancies lasting for not more than a year subject to the conditions laid down in Article 364 Mysore Service Regulation." (Viz., that the employment is bonafide temporary and without loss of pension and on pay not exceeding Rs 100/- provided that both the pension and pay after re-employment do not exceed the pay drawn by them while last in service.)
